

Create your own invasive non-native species

What will your invasive species look like?

Think about how it competes with native species and alters habitats.

What is your new invasive species called?	Where has it been moved to and now live?
If it is an animal what does it like to eat?	If it is a plant how does it spread?